

“By the end of the day you will have the skills to deliver dynamic presentations, learn a technique to enable you to deliver note free presentations and learn a system that will guarantee that your message will reach more of your audience every time”

~ an exclusive day workshop with Jules Wyman

If you want to discover how to present from a platform to promote yourself, your products or your business then read on....

Dear Friend,

This new workshop has been created especially for small business owners, coaches and authors who want to easily promote themselves and have their business really take off.

There's a good chance that you've invested hundreds, if not thousands of pounds, developing your own skills, but are yet to see a significant return on your investment. How many gifted people do you know with amazing books, products and talents to share with the world, who just speak to people one to one rather than reaching 100's?

Deep down you dream of having a thriving and prosperous business, but you are unsure about how to get there without selling out or losing yourself in the process. Everyone who navigates this path has certain key issues to face, like being able to effectively communicate their message and reach the right audience. Perhaps you are not sure who your audience is and do not want to exclude any opportunities.

Maybe you are developing your speaking on a part time basis, but dream of the day when you can earn a full time income. Maybe you know that speaking to 100's will enable you to take your product national or even global? You may have been reluctant to market yourself because 'speaking' and 'selling' just aren't words you usually 'do'.

My name is Jules Wyman and this is my message to you. You have a unique contribution to make....

“There is nothing enlightened about shrinking...

We are all meant to shine...”

Marianne Williamson

If you don't share your gifts and talents with the world, it's not just you who loses out. All the people in the world who NEED what you have to offer will miss out too.

'The brief was met – the tools were shared and the exercises helped reinforce the learnings from today. The fact that we've been made aware of these secrets is great – now it's time to get out and use them on a daily basis (at home & work!)

Still undecided whether this course is for you? Here's something to think about...

I want to make sure that you make the decision that is right for you, and that you make an informed decision, so here are a few final thoughts.

The fact that you have read this far indicates that you aren't completely satisfied with your current presentation skills. However things are going at the moment, deep down you probably know that you could be achieving more, and that it could be much easier.

I'm inviting you to take you and your business to a whole new level. In just one day you can discover how you could have been holding yourself back, and what changes to make to welcome the success that you really deserve.

Perhaps you are worried about the cost. Remember that this is an investment. How many new clients will you need to attract to recoup your investment?

A whole new way of doing business awaits you. Are you willing to take the next step? Are you willing to start enjoying the success you really deserve? Remember, this seminar will help you present yourself, your products and your business in a more dynamic way which can ultimately bring more money and clients for you!

I urge you to take this step. Think of all the people in the world who are ready to benefit from what you have to offer. If you don't take action, it's not just you who loses out, all the people who need what you have to offer will lose out too!

And I look forward to seeing YOU soon!
